

On-the-Go Catering

When your campus event is simple and informal, consider self-service catering for efficiency and quality at a reduced price. Your order will be packaged in disposable ware, and will be ready for pick-up at a time you specify. This service is available at all catering locations listed below. Please take note that this service is for University sponsored events only.

To Place an Order:

1. Call or fax completed order form to the catering office at the preferred pick-up location during University business hours. Please provide 48-hour notice to ensure availability of product. A contract will be generated to serve as confirmation of your order.

Please visit:
